On behalf of St. Patrick's Parish, I joyfully welcome you. Our hope is all who come to St. Patrick's will know the love of Christ. ## Father Sam's Message

Once again, we can hear the theme of rejoicing in this week's readings. We experience joy and rejoice when we hear God's Word, understand God's Word, and live by God's Word. The first reading recounts how Israel, the people of God, were instructed by Nehemiah to "not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the Lord must be your strength." The people are instructed to "rejoice" after they hear the "law of God" proclaimed and then fully explained. "Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so all could understand what was read." The description of the priest Ezra standing up on a "wood platform" "before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand... read out of the book" should sound familiar because this is what we do at every Mass. There are two main parts of the Mass - the "Liturgy of the Word" and the "Liturgy of the Eucharist." In the "Liturgy of the Word," we hear God's Word, Sacred Scripture, proclaimed and in the homily, that Word we just heard proclaimed is interpreted. Our experience of joy at Mass will increase and overflow the more we "listen attentively," understand, and agree to live the truth God has revealed to us. I realize this is not always easy to do at Mass, particularly on Sundays. Many distractions confront us. If we allow ourselves to be drawn away by them, we lose out on the joy God wants us to experience in His Word. To minimize the sway of the inevitable distractions during the celebration of the "Liturgy of the Word," we should carefully and slowly read the readings before the Mass. I suggest reading them several days before the upcoming Sunday then spend quiet time thinking and praying over them. Although I pray with the guidance of the Holy Spirit and we priests make every effort within our power, we cannot always adequately explain or relate the readings so that "all could understand" as Ezra was able to do. To help with understanding the readings, there are many good resources on the Internet. In the near future, I hope to provide links on our parish website to have access to more explanation and application of the Sunday readings. One site that comes to mind is Bishop Robert Barron's website "wordonfire.org." You can hear Bishop Barron's homilies on the upcoming readings under the resources tab from the home page.

Ezra's reading of "the law of God" and Nehemiah's exhortation to "rejoice" is not given just to one person at a time but to an entire group of people gathered together at the same time. This reminds us we must be part of the assembly to correctly understand God's revelation, what He is telling us. Our word for "church" originally comes from the Greek word "ecclesia," which means an "assembly of citizens." We hear of the unity of the assembly of believers and how each member is related to one another in the second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Paul describes how the assembly, the Church, with its many different members is united together as one just like the human body, also having different parts, is one. Each part of a human body has its unique role and importance in the good of the whole body. We must remain in the one Body of Christ, His Church, to truly hear, interpret, and live out God's Word.

Each of us are members of the one "Christ's Body," the Church, and every one of us has an indispensable role in our Lord Jesus' mission as we hear from today's Gospel to "bring glad tidings to the poor... proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord." We grow in our joy in Christ by being an active part of a community of believers and fulfilling our part as members of His Body. We are an important part of the "One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic" Church lived out locally here at our parish. "If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy." We are called to worship together as one, as Christ's Body, and are committed to help build each other up, helping each to know God. We faithfully fulfil our role when we ourselves follow and adhere to the Word God revealed to us.

Update on Offertory Program

After our latest Finance Council Meeting, I am very pleased to report an update on the progress (and success!) of our recent offertory program. Since our campaign began in the fall, we have had an increase in the total number of parish families contributing consistently each week. There are now between 190 to 200 families who are giving weekly as compared to before the program when 130 to 140 families gave. Also, looking at the total weekly offertory received in the first half of our current 2018/2019 fiscal year (July to December) compared to the first half of last fiscal year, we have had an increase of almost $22,200 for St. Patrick's! That is a 13.2% increase from the same period last year. This is great news! Finally, we had a very good weekly collection last month, December 2018. We saw a 24% ($7,900) increase for St. Patrick's and 14.5% ($892) increase for Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Mission as compared with last December. This increase does not even include the Christmas Collections. I sincerely thank every one of you who contribute to the collection and are keeping up with your weekly commitments. With your generous help, the parish is in a much better financial position than we were just a few months ago. By God's grace, let's keep it up!

Let us pray, with the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we can more attentively listen to Her Son, God's Word, and live out more fully our part as a member of His Body, the Church.

In Christ, Fr. Samuel West

A Message from our Bishop

Dear Children and Youth,

Now, as you continue your academic school year after the Holidays, and as we begin a New Year, I pray all is well with you.

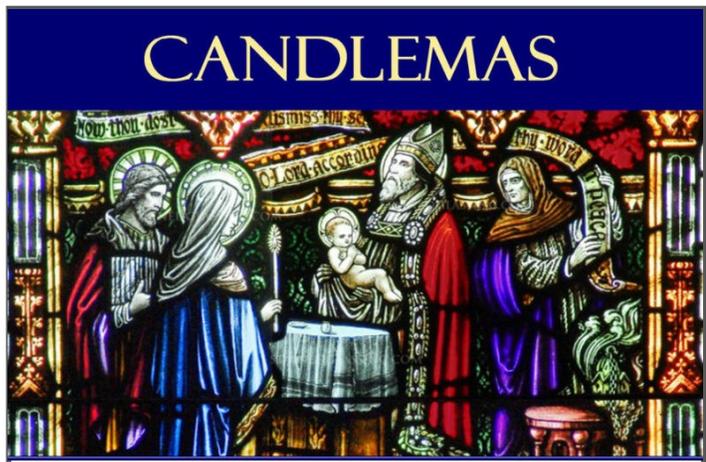

For those of you who, last year, celebrated your First Holy Communion, I pray that you have stayed close to Jesus. I hope you, and your family, are continuing to go to church on Sunday so that you can listen to the Gospel of Jesus and to receive Him in Holy Communion - the Bread of Life, the Eucharist! Let us not deprive ourselves of so great a Gift! A Blessed and Happy New Year to you and your family.

For you, our young people, who received the Sacrament of Confirmation in 2018, I pray all is well with you as we begin the New Year, 2019.

From your day of Confirmation to the present, how has the Holy Spirit made a difference in your life? Have you fostered a relationship with Him? Are you calling upon Him to help you? Don't forget, the Holy Spirit is your "Helper." Have you asked Him for the "Fruits" and "Gifts" that are available to you? Remember, all you have to do is ask for them. The Holy Spirit is there to help you! He loves you and He will lead you to a greater relationship with Jesus. Never forget that!

Let me know how it is going by leaving a message or comment on the Diocese of Stockton's Facebook or Twitter page.

You remain in my prayers.
God bless you!
Bishop Cotta

CANDLEMAS

Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple for the rites of purification and dedication as prescribed by the Torah. Simeon took the Child Jesus into his arms, blessed God, and said,

"Now, Master, You may let Your servant go in peace, according to Your word, for my eyes have seen Your salvation, which You prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for Your people Israel."

Luke 2:29-32

Saturday, February 2
Candlemas will be celebrated with Mass at 9:00 am
St. Patrick's Church, Sonora

At all Masses during the weekend of February 2-3, we will have a special blessing of the throats, using the blessed candles from Candlemas.

Our group going on the pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City will take your prayers with them, and offer them at the Basilica. Please write your prayers on a piece of paper, and you can either fold the paper in half and seal it with tape, or put it in a small, sealed envelope. Look for the wooden box marked "Prayers for Our Lady of Guadalupe" after Masses on January 26th - 27th, and put your prayers in the box. The group leaves for Mexico on January 30th.
