Message from Bishop Myron J. Cotta

The following are excerpts from Bishop Cotta's communications from Rome, at the Annual Formation Course for New Bishops.

(Sept. 5) I send greetings from Rome as I attend the annual gathering of recently ordained bishops from all over the world. The event is hosted at the International College of the Legionaries of Christ in the outskirts of the City of Rome.

Wednesday was our first full day of conferences with 146 bishops scheduled to attend. There are three of us from California. Two new Auxiliary Bishops: one from Los Angeles - Bishop Marc Trudeau & Bishop Robert Christian from San Francisco. There are several others from the United States.

At Mass, the Gospel proclaimed that Jesus was sent to proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God - "for this purpose He was sent." All of us bishops have been "sent" ("apostles") to proclaim the good news of the kingdom; but, "What is the "good news" of the kingdom?" The good news is that the Kingdom is in our midst! God is with us - "Emmanuel!" The good news is: God dwells with us! He dwells and journeys among the Bishops represented, here, and among the people we serve within our dioceses. You and they are called, and invited, to participate in building up the Kingdom of God in this day and age.

Let us never forget: God dwells and journeys with us, as the people of the Diocese of Stockton! We are all "co-workers" with God. It's all His work, but each has their part to offer. As the "baptized," all are invited and privileged to take part in it!

(Sept. 6) After this morning's celebration of a votive Mass in honor of the Holy Spirit, we were given a General Introduction of Pope Francis' Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel). The Church has the great challenge to do what it is "called" to do by Christ, Himself: to evangelize! As a starting point, we need to ask ourselves, as the people & ministers of our Diocese of Stockton, the following questions:

1. How are we evangelizing in our homes, at work, in our parishes and Catholic schools?
2. Do we have an authentic life-giving relationship with the Risen Jesus?

3. Are we "forming" individuals in the Christian Faith or are we simply "instructing" them in our sacramental and religious programs?
4. Do our diocesan and parish ministries "accompany" the person on their Christian walk?
5. Do we go out to the person that needs the presence of the Church instead of waiting and expecting them to come to us?
6. Do we reflect the pastoral and merciful way of Jesus to those whom we meet and serve?
7. How do we share the "Joy" of the Gospel with those who have been hurt by the Church and lost the joy and respect for Her and for those who proclaim the Gospel of Jesus? How do we regain, re-establish, trust?

These are just a few of the ways that we are challenged to live out the Call to encounter others and invite them to enter into a relationship with the Crucified and Risen Christ. In addition, we are called to patiently encourage our brothers and sisters to be evangelizers as they put the Gospel into action in their everyday lives - loving their neighbor as themselves.

(Sept. 8) On the Feast of the Birth of Mary, we journeyed into the City of Rome to celebrate Mass at one of the four major basilicas of the city: St. Mary Major. What an honor and privilege it was to be there on Our Lady's Feast and to celebrate, within that beautiful environment, the Mass.

As in anything having to do with Our Lady, she, or the circumstance, always points to her Son, Jesus. Even though we were acknowledging her birth on that day, the readings of the Mass pointed to the birth of her Son. Her simple, "yes" and the trustful response of her husband, Joseph, fulfilled "the promise" of the God of Israel to send a deliverer, a "messiah." This Messiah would be God's Presence among us, "Emmanuel" - Jesus!

That First Saturday, at the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore, was a unique time to "ponder" in our hearts, as Mary did in her Immaculate Heart, the Mystery of the Incarnation. All of us departed from that sanctuary filled with a sense of the joy of the Gospel of the Nativity of Jesus, while we honored Him in celebrating his Mother's birth.

May the Mother of Jesus, and Mother of the Church, pray for us.

*In the Peace of Christ,
Bishop Myron J. Cotta*

St. Patrick's Christmas Fair Raffle
Find treasures hidden in your home and donate them to the Christmas Fair Raffle!

You probably already have items in your closets that would make great raffle prizes. How about those unopened gifts, those pretty or useful items you've barely used, or those antiques that you've never put out on display? We could also use gift cards, game or theater tickets, overnight stays at your cabin, beach, or lake home, several lessons you might teach or coach, even a cooking lesson or dinner prepared at someone's home. Be creative! Items are needed by mid-November. We hope to have many raffle items at the Christmas Fair fundraiser this year. Please help us by donating things, big or small, for this fun event. We will need them by mid-November. Please contact the parish office 532-7139 or Kathy Casas 770-5987 if you would like to donate.

Thank you for your generosity!

Medaase!

"Thank you" does not adequately express the gratitude for all the support given me for my recent mission trip to Ghana, Africa. We are a universal church experiencing the same type of needs, joys and sorrows, though some at a greater intensity. Through the kindness of seminarians, priests, and the people of the villages, I was able to witness the church alive in Ghana. I pray, through the Eucharistic Lord, that the family of Ghana experienced the universal love shared through all the parishioners of St. Patrick's.

In Christ,
Marla Rumbaugh
